PENALTIES FOR MISUSING THIS FORM:

Title 18, Section 1001 of the U.S. Code states that a person is guilty of a felony for knowingly and willingly making false or fraudulent statements to any department of the United States Government. HUD and any owner (or any employee of HUD or the owner) may be subject to penalties for unauthorized disclosures or improper use of information collected based on the consent form. Use of the information collected based on this verification form is restricted to the purposes cited above. Any person who knowingly or willingly requests, obtains or discloses any information under false pretenses concerning an applicant or participant may be subject to a misdemeanor and fined not more than $5,000. Any applicant or participant affected by negligent disclosure of information may bring civil action for damages, and seek other relief, as may be appropriate, against the officer or employee of HUD or the owner responsible for the unauthorized disclosure or improper use. Penalty provisions for misusing the social security number are contained in the Social Security Act at 208 (a) (6), (7) and (8). Violation of these provisions are cited as violations of 42 U.S.C. 408 (a) (6), (7) and (8).

Wage Match Notice to Tenants

USDA Rural Development has implemented a wage and benefit matching system. The goal of this system is to reduce fraud, waste, and abuse in Federal programs. This notice is to inform you about the program and how it may affect you.

USDA Rural Development will receive wage and benefit information from the State Department of Labor (SDOL). This information will then be compared against information provided on your Tenant Certification (Form RD 3560-8) or Owner's Certification of Compliance with HUD's Tenant Eligibility and Rent Procedures (HUD-50059). Whenever differences are revealed, or result in the government providing unauthorized assistance in the form of rental subsidy, you may expect to be contacted for an explanation.

USDA Rural Development assumes Tenant Certifications or Owner's Certification of Compliance with HUD's Tenant Eligibility and Rent Procedures are completed as accurately as possible. However, misunderstandings and honest errors do occur. Unfortunately, there are also those who will report wrong information in order to qualify for Federal benefits. The objective of the record's check is to make sure that those needing assistance can receive assistance, while those who do not can be stopped and made to repay improperly received benefits.

USDA Rural Development seeks to implement a wage and benefit matching system fairly. Therefore, whenever a new or renewed Tenant Certification is completed, it will be subject to verification by the Agency and the owner or management agent servicing your housing development. If a problem is suspected, you will be contacted and asked to provide an explanation. If disagreements arise, you will be informed of your right to file a grievance under 7 CFR 3560.160. A copy of the grievance procedure is available from the owner or management agent servicing your housing development.

In addition, this notice serves to inform you that USDA Rural Development may use information reported on the Tenant Certification or Owner's Certification of Compliance with HUD's Tenant Eligibility and Rent Procedures to determine eligibility for Federal benefits, verify compliance with program requirements, and recover improper payments from current or former beneficiaries.

If you have any further questions, please contact the owner or management agent of your housing development.

Protections for Victims of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking

When should I receive this form? A covered housing provider must provide a copy of the Notice of Occupancy Rights Under The Violence Against Women Act (Form HUD-5380) and the Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking (Form HUD-5382) when you are admitted as a tenant, when you receive an eviction or termination notice and prior to termination of tenancy, or when you are denied as an applicant. A covered housing provider may provide these forms at additional times.

What is the Violence Against Women Act ("VAWA")? This notice describes protections that may apply to you as an applicant or a tenant under a housing program covered by a federal law called the Violence Against Women Act ("VAWA"). VAWA provides housing protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking. VAWA protections must be in leases and other program documents, as applicable. VAWA protections may be raised at any time. You do not need to know the type or name of the program you are participating in or applying to in order to seek VAWA protections.

You can read translated VAWA forms at https://www.hud.gov/program_offices/administration/hudclips/forms/hud5a#4. If you speak or read in a language other than English, your covered housing provider must give you language assistance regarding your VAWA protections (for example, oral interpretation and/or written translation).

What do the words in this notice mean?

- VAWA violence/abuse means one or more incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.
- Victim means any victim of VAWA violence/abuse.
- Affiliated person means the tenant's spouse, parent, sibling, or child; or any individual, tenant, or lawful occupant living in the tenant's household; or anyone for whom the tenant acts as parent/guardian.
- Covered housing program[1] includes the following HUD programs:
  - Public Housing
  - Tenant-based vouchers (TBV, also known as Housing Choice Vouchers or HCV) and Project-based Vouchers (PBV) Section 8 programs
  - Section 8 Project-Based Rental Assistance (PBRA)
  - Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation Single Room Occupancy
  - Section 202 Supportive Housing for the Elderly
  - Section 811 Supportive Housing for Persons with Disabilities
  - Section 221(d)(3)/(d)(5) Multifamily Rental Housing
  - Section 236 Multifamily Rental Housing
  - Housing Opportunities for Persons With AIDS (HOPWA) program
  - HOME Investment Partnerships (HOME) program
  - The Housing Trust Fund
  - Emergency Solutions Grants (ESG) program
  - Continuum of Care program
  - Rural Housing Stability Assistance program
- Covered housing provider means the individual or entity under a covered housing program that is responsible for providing or overseeing the VAWA protection in a specific situation. The covered housing provider may be a public housing agency, project sponsor, housing owner, mortgagor, housing manager, State or local government, public agency, or a nonprofit or for-profit organization as the lessor.

[1] For information about non-HUD covered housing programs under VAWA, see Interagency Statement on the Violence Against Women Act's Housing Provisions at https://www.hud.gov/sites/dfiles/PA/documents/InteragencyVAWAHousingStmnt092024.pdf.

What if I am an applicant under a program covered by VAWA? You can't be denied housing, housing assistance, or homeless assistance covered by VAWA just because you (or a household member) are or were a victim or just because of problems you (or a household member) had as a direct result of being or having been a victim. For example, if you have a poor rental or credit history or a criminal record, and that history or record is the direct result of you being a victim of VAWA abuse/violence, that history or record cannot be used as a reason to deny you housing or homeless assistance covered by VAWA.

What if I am a tenant under a program covered by VAWA? You cannot lose housing, housing assistance, or homeless assistance covered by VAWA or be evicted just because you (or a household member) are or were a victim of VAWA violence/abuse. You also cannot lose housing, housing assistance, or homeless assistance covered by VAWA or be evicted just because of problems that you (or a household member) have as a direct result of being or having been a victim. For example, if you are a victim of VAWA abuse/violence that directly results in repeated noise complaints and damage to the property, neither the noise complaints nor property damage can be used as a reason for evicting you from housing covered by VAWA. You also cannot be evicted or removed from housing, housing assistance, or homeless assistance covered by VAWA because of someone else's criminal actions that are directly related to VAWA abuse/violence against you, a household member, or another affiliated person.

How can tenants request an emergency transfer? Victims of VAWA violence/abuse have the right to request an emergency transfer from their current unit to another unit for safety reasons related to the VAWA violence/abuse. An emergency transfer cannot be guaranteed, but you can request an emergency transfer when:

1. You (or a household member) are a victim of VAWA violence/abuse;
2. You expressly request the emergency transfer; AND
3. EITHER
    a. you reasonably believe that there is a threat of imminent harm from further violence, including trauma, if you (or a household member) stay in the same dwelling unit; OR
    b. if you (or a household member) are a victim of sexual assault, either you reasonably believe that there is a threat of imminent harm from further violence, including trauma, if you (or a household member) were to stay in the unit, or the sexual assault occurred on the premises and you request an emergency transfer within 90 days (including holidays and weekend days) of when that assault occurred.

You can request an emergency transfer even if you are not lease compliant, for example if you owe rent. If you request an emergency transfer, your request, the information you provided to make the request, and your new unit's location must be kept strictly confidential by the covered housing provider. The covered housing provider is required to maintain a VAWA emergency transfer plan and make it available to you upon request. To request an emergency transfer or to read the covered housing provider's VAWA emergency transfer plan, contact:

Housing Provider/Grantee Name:
Address:
Phone: Fax: TTY Number:
Email: Website:

The VAWA emergency transfer plan includes information about what the covered housing provider does to make sure your address and other relevant information are not disclosed to your perpetrator.

Can the perpetrator be evicted or removed from my lease? Depending on your specific situation, your covered housing provider may be able to divide the lease to evict just the perpetrator. This is called "lease bifurcation."

What happens if the lease bifurcation ends up removing the perpetrator who was the only tenant who qualified for the housing or assistance? In this situation, the covered housing provider must provide you and other remaining household members an opportunity to establish eligibility or to find other housing. If you cannot or don't want to establish eligibility, then the covered housing provider must give you a reasonable time to move or establish eligibility for another covered housing program. This amount of time varies, depending on the covered housing program involved. The table below shows the reasonable time provided under each covered housing programs with HUD. Timeframes for covered housing programs operated by other agencies are determined by those agencies.

Covered Housing Program(s)	Reasonable Time for Remaining Household Members to Continue to Receive Assistance, Establish Eligibility, or Move.
HOME and Housing Trust Fund, Continuum of Care Program (except for permanent supportive housing), ESG program, Section 221(d)(3) Program, Section 221(d)(5) Program, Rural Housing Stability Assistance Program	Because these programs do not provide housing or assistance based on just one person's status or characteristics, the remaining tenant(s), or family member(s) in the CoC program, can keep receiving assistance or living in the assisted housing as applicable.
Permanent supportive housing funded by the Continuum of Care Program	The remaining household member(s) can receive rental assistance until expiration of the lease that is in effect when the qualifying member is evicted.
Housing Choice Voucher, Project-based Voucher, and Public Housing programs (for Special Purpose Vouchers (e.g., HUD-VASH, FUP, FYI, etc.), see also program specific guidance)	If the person removed was the only tenant who established eligible citizenship/immigration status, the remaining household member(s) must be given 30 calendar days from the date of the lease bifurcation to establish program eligibility or find alternative housing. For HUD-VASH, if the veteran is removed, the remaining family member(s) can keep receiving assistance or living in the assisted housing as applicable. If the veteran was the only tenant who established eligible citizenship/immigration status, the remaining household member(s) must be given 30 calendar days to establish program eligibility or find alternative housing.
Section 202/811 PRAC and SPRAC	The remaining household member(s) must be given 90 calendar days from the date of the lease bifurcation or until the lease expires, whichever is first, to establish program eligibility or find alternative housing.
Section 202/8	The remaining household member(s) must be given 90 calendar days from the date of the lease bifurcation or when the lease expires, whichever is first, to establish program eligibility or find alternative housing. If the person removed was the only tenant who established eligible citizenship/immigration status, the remaining household member(s) must be given 30 calendar days from the date of the lease bifurcation to establish program eligibility or find alternative housing.
Section 236 (including RAP); Project-based Section 8 and Mod Rehab/SRO	The remaining household member(s) must be given 30 calendar days from the date of the lease bifurcation to establish program eligibility or find alternative housing.
HOPWA	The remaining household member(s) must be given no less than 90 calendar days, and not more than one year, from the date of the lease bifurcation to establish program eligibility or find alternative housing. The date is set by the HOPWA Grantee or Project Sponsor.

Are there any reasons that I can be evicted or lose assistance? VAWA does not prevent you from being evicted or losing assistance for a lease violation, program violation, or violation of other requirements that are not due to the VAWA violence/abuse committed against you or an affiliated person. However, a covered housing provider cannot be stricter with you than with other tenants, just because you or an affiliated person experienced VAWA abuse/violence. VAWA also will not prevent eviction, termination, or removal if other tenants or housing staff are shown to be in immediate, physical danger that could lead to serious bodily harm or death if you are not evicted or removed from assistance. But only if no other action can be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat should a covered housing provider evict you or end your assistance, if the VAWA abuse/violence happens to you or an affiliated person. A covered housing provider must provide a copy of the Notice of Occupancy Rights Under The Violence Against Women Act (Form HUD-5380) and the Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking (Form HUD-5382) when you receive an eviction or termination notice and prior to termination of tenancy.

What do I need to document that I am a victim of VAWA abuse/violence? If you ask for VAWA protection, the covered housing provider may request documentation showing that you (or a household member) are a victim. BUT the covered housing provider must make this request in writing and must give you at least 14 business days (weekends and holidays do not count) to respond, and you are free to choose any one of the following:

1. A self-certification form (for example, Form-HUD 5382), which the covered housing provider must give you along with this notice. Either you can fill out the form or someone else can complete it for you;
2. A statement from a victim/survivor service provider, attorney, mental health professional or medical professional who has helped you address incidents of VAWA violence/abuse. The professional must state "under penalty of perjury" that he/she/they believes that the incidents of VAWA violence/abuse are real and covered by VAWA. Both you and the professional must sign the statement;
3. A police, administrative, or court record (such as a protective order) that shows you (or a household member) were a victim of VAWA violence/abuse; OR
4. If allowed by your covered housing provider, any other statement or evidence provided by you.

It is your choice which documentation to provide and the covered housing provider must accept any one of the above as documentation. The covered housing provider is prohibited from seeking additional documentation of victim status or requiring more than one of these types of documentation, unless the covered housing provider receives conflicting information about the VAWA violence/abuse.

If you do not provide one of these types of documentation by the deadline, the covered housing provider does not have to provide the VAWA protections you requested. If the documentation received by the covered housing provider contains conflicting information about the VAWA violence/abuse, the covered housing provider may require you to provide additional documentation from the list above, but the covered housing provider must give you another 30 calendar days to do so.

Will my information be kept confidential? If you share information with a covered housing provider about why you need VAWA protections, the covered housing provider must keep the information you share strictly confidential. This information should be securely and separately kept from your other tenant files. No one who works for your covered housing provider will have access to this information, unless there is a reason that specifically calls for them to access this information, your covered housing provider explicitly authorizes their access for that reason, and that authorization is consistent with applicable law.

Your information will not be disclosed to anyone else or put in a database shared with anyone else, except in the following situations:

1. If you give the covered housing provider written permission to share the information for a limited time;
2. If the covered housing provider needs to use that information in an eviction proceeding or hearing; or
3. If other applicable law requires the covered housing provider to share the information.

How do other laws apply? VAWA does not limit the covered housing provider's duty to honor court orders about access to or control of the property, or civil protection orders issued to protect a victim of VAWA abuse/violence. Additionally, VAWA does not limit the covered housing provider's duty to comply with a court order with respect to the distribution or possession of property among household members during a family break up. The covered housing provider must follow all applicable fair housing and civil rights requirements.

Can I request a reasonable accommodation? If you have a disability, your covered housing provider must provide reasonable accommodations to rules, policies, practices, or services that may be necessary to allow you to equally benefit from VAWA protections (for example, giving you more time to submit documents or assistance with filling out forms). You may request a reasonable accommodation at any time, even for the first time during an eviction. If a provider is denying a specific reasonable accommodation because it is not reasonable, your covered housing provider must first engage in the interactive process with you to identify possible alternative accommodations. To request a reasonable accommodation, please contact:

Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to range from 45 to 90 minutes per each covered housing provider's response, depending on the program. This includes time to print and distribute the form. Comments concerning the accuracy of this burden estimate and any suggestions for reducing this burden can be sent to the Reports Management Officer, QDAM, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 7th Street, SW, Washington, D.C. 20410. This notice is required for covered housing programs under section 41411 of VAWA and 24 CFR 5.2003. Covered housing providers must give this notice to applicants and tenants to inform them of the VAWA protections as specified in section 41411(d)(2). This is a model notice, and no information is being collected. A Federal agency may not collect this information, and you are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid Office of Management and Budget control number.

CERTIFICATION OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, DATING VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, OR STALKING

Confidentiality Note: Any personal information you share in this form will be maintained by your covered housing provider according to the confidentiality provisions below.

Purpose of Form: If you are a tenant of or applicant for housing assisted under a covered housing program, or if you are applying for or receiving transitional housing or rental assistance under a covered housing program, and ask for protection under the Violence Against Women Act ("VAWA"), you may use this form to comply with a covered housing provider's request for written documentation of your status as a "victim". This form is accompanied by a "Notice of Occupancy Rights Under the Violence Against Women Act," Form HUD-5380.

VAWA protects individuals and families regardless of a victim's age, sex, or marital status.

You are not expected and cannot be asked or required to claim, document, or prove victim status or VAWA violence/abuse other than as stated in "Notice of Occupancy Rights Under the Violence Against Women Act," Form HUD-5380.

This form is one of your available options for responding to a covered housing provider's written request for documentation of victim status or the incident(s) of VAWA violence/abuse. If you choose, you may submit one of the types of third-party documentation described in Form HUD-5380, in the section titled, "What do I need to document that I am a victim?". Your covered housing provider must give you at least 14 business days (weekends and holidays do not count) to respond to their written request for this documentation.

Will my information be kept confidential? Whenever you ask for or about VAWA protections, your covered housing provider must keep any information you provide about the VAWA violence/abuse or the fact you (or a household member) are a victim, including the information on this form, strictly confidential. This information should be securely and separately kept from your other tenant files. This information can only be accessed by an employee/agent of your covered housing provider if (1) access is required for a specific reason, (2) your covered housing provider explicitly authorizes that person's access for that reason, and (3) the authorization complies with applicable law. This information will not be given to anyone else or put in a database shared with anyone else, unless your covered housing provider (1) gets your written permission to do so for a limited time, (2) is required to do so as part of an eviction or termination hearing, or (3) is required to do so by law.

In addition, your covered housing provider must keep your address strictly confidential to ensure that it is not disclosed to a person who committed or threatened to commit VAWA violence/abuse against you (or a household member).

Applicable definitions of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking:

Domestic violence includes felony or misdemeanor crimes of violence committed by a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who lives with or has lived with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner, by a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction, or by any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from that person's acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction.

Spouse or intimate partner of the victim includes a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim, as determined by the length of the relationship, the type of the relationship, and the frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Dating violence means violence committed by a person:

(1) Who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim; and

(2) Where the existence of such a relationship shall be determined based on a consideration of the following factors: (i) The length of the relationship; (ii) The type of relationship; and (iii) The frequency of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship.

Sexual assault means any nonconsensual sexual act proscribed by Federal, tribal, or State law, including when the victim lacks capacity to consent.

Stalking means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to:

(1) Fear for the person's individual safety or the safety of others or

(2) Suffer substantial emotional distress.

Certification of Applicant or Tenant: By signing below, I am certifying that the information provided on this form is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and recollection, and that one or more members of my household is or has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking as described in the applicable definitions above.

Rural Housing and Community Programs

Things You Should Know About USDA Rural Rental Housing

Don't risk losing your chances for federally assisted housing by providing false, incomplete, or inaccurate information on your application or recertification

Penalties for Committing Fraud

You must provide information about your household status and income when you apply for assisted housing in apartments financed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA). USDA places a high priority on preventing fraud. If you deliberately omit information or give false information to the management company on your application or recertification forms, you may be:

- Evicted from your apartment;
- Required to repay all the extra rental assistance you received based on faulty information;
- Fined;
- Put in prison and/or barred from receiving future assistance.

Your State and local governments also may have laws that allow them to impose other penalties for fraud in addition to the ones listed here.

How To Complete Your Application

When you meet with the landlord to complete your application, you must provide information about:

- All Household Income. List all sources of money that you receive. If any other adults will be living with you in the apartment, you must also list all of their income. Sources of money include:
  - –Wages, unemployment and disability compensation, welfare payments, alimony, Social Security benefits, pensions, etc.;
  - –Any money you receive on behalf of your children, such as child support, children's Social Security, etc.;
  - –Income from assets such as interest from a savings account, credit union, certificate of deposit, stock dividends, etc.;
  - –Any income you expect to receive, such as a pay raise or bonus.
- All Household Assets. List all assets that you have. If any other adults will be living with you, you must also list all of their assets. Assets include:
  - –Bank accounts, savings bonds, certificates of deposit, stocks, real estate, etc.;
  - –Any business or asset you sold in the last 2 years for less than its full value, such as selling your home to your children.
- All Household Members. List the names of all the people, including adults and children, who will actually live with you in the apartment, whether or not they are related to you.

Ask for Help if You Need It

If you are having problems understanding any part of the application, let the landlord know and ask for help with any questions you may have. The landlord is trained to help you with the application process.

Before You Sign the Application

- Make sure that you read the entire application and understand everything it says;
- Check it carefully to ensure that all the questions have been answered completely and accurately;
- Don't sign it unless you are sure that there aren't any errors or missing information.

By signing the application and certification forms, you are stating that they are complete to the best of your knowledge and belief. Signing a form when you know it contains misinformation is considered fraud.

- The management company will verify your information. USDA may conduct computer matches with other Federal, State or private agencies to verify that the income you reported is correct;
- Ask for a copy of your signed application and keep a copy of it for your records.

Tenant Recertification

Residents in USDA-financed assisted housing must provide updated information to the management company at least once a year. Ask your landlord when you must recertify your income.

You must immediately report:

- Any changes in income of $100 or more per month;
- Any changes in the number of household members.

For your annual recertification, you must report:

- All income changes, such as increases in pay or benefits, job change or job loss, loss of benefits, etc., for any adult household member;

- Any household member who has moved in or out;
- All assets that you or your adult housemates own, or any assets that were sold in the last 2 years for less than their full value.

Avoid Fraud, Report Abuse

Prevent fraudulent schemes through these steps:

- Don't pay any money to file your application;
- Don't pay any money to move up on the waiting list;
- Don't pay for anything not covered by your lease;
- Get receipts for any money you do pay;
- Get a written explanation for any money you are required to pay besides rent, such as maintenance charges.

Report Abuse: If you know anyone who has falsified an application, or who tries to persuade you to make false statements, report him or her to the manager. If you cannot report to your manager, call your local or state USDA office at 1 (800) 670-6553, or write: USDA, STOP 0782, 1400 Independence Ave., SW, Washington, DC 20250.

If You Disagree With a Decision

Tenants may file a grievance in writing with the complex owner in response to the owner's actions, or failure to act, that result in a denial, significant reduction, or termination of benefits. Grievances may also be filed when a tenant disputes the owner's notice of proposed adverse action.

Notice of Adverse Action

The complex owner must notify tenants in writing about any proposed actions that may have adverse consequences, such as denial of occupancy and changes in the occupancy rules or lease. The written notice must give specific reasons for the proposed action, and must also advise tenants of the "right to respond to the notice within 10 calendar days after the date of the notice" and of "the right to a hearing." Housing complexes in areas with a concentration of non-English-speaking people must send notices in English and in the majority non-English language.

Grievance Process Overview

USDA believes that the best way to resolve grievances is through an informal meeting between tenants and the landlord or owner. Once the owner learns about a tenant grievance, the process should begin with an informal meeting between the two parties. Owners must offer to meet with tenants to discuss the grievance within 10 calendar days of receipt of the complaint. USDA encourages owners and tenants to try to reach a mutually satisfactory resolution to the problem at the meeting.

If the grievance is not resolved, the tenant must request a hearing within 10 days of receipt of the meeting findings. The parties will then select a hearing panel or hearing officer to govern the hearing. All parties are notified of the decision 10 days after the hearing.

When a Grievance Is Legitimate

The landlord must determine if a grievance is within the established rules for the program. For example, "I want to file a complaint because the manager doesn't speak to me" is not a legitimate complaint. However, "I want to file a complaint because the manager isn't maintaining the property according to USDA guidelines" is a legitimate complaint. Below are examples of cases in which tenants may and may not file a complaint.

A complaint may not be filed with the owner/management if:	A complaint may be filed with the owner/management if:
USDA has authorized a proposed rent change.	There is a modification of the lease, or changes in the rules or rent that are not authorized by USDA.
A tenant believes that he/she has been discriminated against because of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, familial status, or disability. Discrimination complaints should be filed with USDA and/or the Department of U.S. Housing and Urban Development (HUD), not with the owner/management.	The owner or management fails to maintain the property in a decent, safe, and sanitary manner.
The complex has formed a tenant's association and all parties have agreed to use the association to settle grievances.	The owner violates a lease provision or occupancy rule.
USDA has required a change in the rules and proper notices have been given.	A tenant is denied admission to the complex.
The tenant is in violation of the lease and the result is termination of tenancy.
There are disputes between tenants that do not involve the owner/management.
Tenants are displaced or other adverse effects occur as a result of loan prepayment.

- Le exijan que devuelva el dinero de toda la asistencia para alquiler extra que recibió basada en información defectuosa.
- Lo multen.
- Lo encarcelen o le impidan recibir asistencia en el futuro.

El gobierno estatal y el gobierno local también pueden tener leyes que les permitan aplicar otras sanciones por fraude además de las que se mencionan aquí.

Cómo llenar su solicitud

Cuando se reúna con el arrendador para completar su solicitud, debe proporcionar información acerca de:

- Todos los ingresos de su grupo familiar. Indique todas las fuentes de dinero que recibe. Si otros adultos vivirán con usted en el apartamento, también debe mencionar la totalidad de sus ingresos. Las fuentes de dinero incluyen:
  - –Salarios, compensación por desempleo y por discapacidad, pagos de beneficencia, pensión alimenticia, beneficios del Seguro Social, pensiones, etc.
  - –Todo el dinero que reciba en nombre de sus hijos, como manutención de menores, Seguro Social para niños, etc.
  - –Ingresos de activos como intereses de una cuenta de ahorro, de una unión de crédito, un certificado de depósito, dividendos de acciones, etc.
  - –Todo ingreso que espere recibir, como un aumento de salario o bonificación.
- Todos los bienes del grupo familiar. Indique todos los bienes que posee. Si otros adultos vivirán con usted, también debe mencionar la totalidad de sus bienes. Los bienes incluyen:
  - –Cuentas bancarias, bonos de ahorros, certificados de depósito, acciones, inmuebles, etc.
  - –Todo negocio o bien que haya vendido en los últimos 2 años por menos de su valor total, como la venta de su casa a sus hijos.
- Todos los miembros del grupo familiar. Indique los nombres de todas las personas, incluidos adultos y niños, que vivirán en el apartamento, tengan o no parentesco con usted.

Pida ayuda si la necesita

Si tiene problemas para entender alguna parte de la solicitud, comuníqueselo al arrendador y solicite ayuda para cualquier pregunta que pueda tener. El arrendador está capacitado para ayudarle con el proceso de solicitud.

Antes de firmar la solicitud

- Asegúrese de leer toda la solicitud y de comprender todo lo que dice.
- Revísela con cuidado para garantizar que se han contestado todas las preguntas de manera completa y precisa.
- No la firme a menos que tenga la certeza de que no tiene errores ni le falta información.

Al firmar la solicitud y los formularios de certificación, usted afirma que están completos según su leal saber y entender. Firmar un formulario cuando sabe que contiene información errónea se considera un fraude.

- La empresa administradora verificará su información. El USDA puede realizar cotejos computarizados con otros organismos federales, estatales, o privados con el fin de verificar que los ingresos que informó sean correctos.
- Solicite una copia de su solicitud firmada y consérvela en sus registros.

Recertificación de inquilino

Las personas que residan en viviendas de asistencia financiadas por el USDA deben brindar información actualizada a la empresa administradora al menos una vez al año. Pregunte a su arrendador cuándo debe recertificar sus ingresos.

Usted debe informar de inmediato:

- Cualquier cambio en los ingresos por un valor de $100 o más por mes.
- Cualquier cambio en la cantidad de personas que viven en la vivienda.

Para su recertificación, debe informar:

- Todos los cambios en ingresos, como aumentos de salario o beneficios, cambio o pérdida del empleo, pérdida de beneficios, etc., de cualquiera de los adultos que viven en la vivienda.

- Todo miembro del grupo familiar que se mude a la vivienda o la abandone.
- Todos los bienes que usted o las personas que viven con usted poseen, o todo bien que se haya vendido en los últimos 2 años por menos de su valor total.

Evite el fraude, denuncie el abuso

Prevenga ardides fraudulentos mediante estos pasos:

- No pague ninguna cantidad de dinero para presentar su solicitud.
- No pague ninguna cantidad de dinero para avanzar en la lista de espera.
- No pague nada que no esté cubierto por su contrato de alquiler.
- Solicite recibos de todo el dinero que pague.
- Obtenga una explicación por escrito del dinero que se le exija pagar además del alquiler, como cargos de mantenimiento.

Denuncie el abuso: Si sabe de alguien que falsificó una solicitud, o que trata de persuadirle para que haga declaraciones falsas, denúncielo al gerente. Si no puede denunciarlo a su gerente, llame a la oficina local o estatal del USDA al 1 (800) 670-6553, o escriba a: USDA, STOP 0782, 1400 Independence Ave., SW, Washington, DC 20250.

Si no está de acuerdo con una decisión

Los inquilinos pueden presentar una queja por escrito ante el propietario del complejo de apartamentos en respuesta a las acciones del propietario, que resulten en un rechazo, reducción significativa o cancelación de los beneficios. También se puede presentar una queja cuando un inquilino dispute el aviso de propuesta de una medida adversa del propietario.

Aviso de medida adversa

El propietario del complejo de apartamentos debe notificar por escrito a los inquilinos toda propuesta de una medida que pueda tener consecuencias adversas, tales como el rechazo de ocupación y cambios en las normas de ocupación o el contrato de alquiler. El aviso por escrito debe detallar razones específicas para aplicar la medida propuesta y también debe notificar a los inquilinos acerca de su "derecho de responder al aviso en un plazo de 10 días calendario posteriores a la fecha del aviso", y de su "derecho a una audiencia". Los complejos de viviendas que se encuentren en áreas con una concentración de personas que no hablen inglés deben enviar los avisos en inglés y en el idioma que hable la mayoría.

Aspectos generales del proceso de quejas

El USDA considera que la mejor manera de resolver las quejas es a través de una reunión informal entre los inquilinos y el arrendador o propietario. Una vez que el propietario se entera de la queja de un inquilino, el proceso debería comenzar con una reunión informal entre las dos partes. Los propietarios deben ofrecer que se lleve a cabo una reunión con los inquilinos para conversar acerca de la queja en un plazo de 10 días calendario después de recibir la queja. El USDA invita a los propietarios y a los inquilinos a que en la reunión traten de llegar a una resolución del problema que sea mutuamente satisfactoria.

Si no se resuelve la queja, el inquilino debe solicitar una audiencia en un plazo de 10 días a partir de que reciba los resultados de la reunión. Entonces, las partes elegirán a un panel de audiencia, o a un funcionario de audiencias, para que dirija la audiencia. Se notifica a las partes la decisión 10 días después de la audiencia.

Cuándo una queja es legítima

El arrendador debe determinar si una queja está comprendida en las normas establecidas para el programa. Por ejemplo, no es una queja legítima decir: "Quiero presentar una queja porque el gerente no me habla". Sin embargo, sí es una queja legítima decir: "Quiero presentar una queja porque el gerente no mantiene la propiedad de acuerdo con las pautas del USDA". A continuación encontrará casos en los que los inquilinos pueden y no pueden presentar una queja.

No se puede presentar una queja ante el propietario o gerencia si:	Se puede presentar una queja ante el propietario o ante la gerencia si:
El USDA autorizó una propuesta de cambio de alquiler.	Se modifica el contrato de alquiler, o se efectúan cambios en las normas o en el alquiler que no autorizó el USDA.
Un inquilino considera que ha sido víctima de discriminación en función de la raza, color, religión, origen nacional, sexo, edad, situación familiar o discapacidad. Las quejas por discriminación se deben presentar ante el USDA o ante el Departamento de Vivienda y Desarrollo Urbano de los EE. UU. (Department of U.S. Housing and Urban Development, HUD), y no ante el propietario o la gerencia.	El propietario o la gerencia no dan mantenimiento a la propiedad en una manera decente, segura y sanitaria.
El complejo formó una asociación de inquilinos y todas las partes han acordado utilizar la asociación para conciliar las quejas.	El propietario viola una disposición del contrato de alquiler o una norma de ocupación.
El USDA ha exigido un cambio en las normas y se ha notificado debidamente.	Se le niega a un inquilino la admisión al complejo.
El inquilino viola el contrato de alquiler y el resultado es la rescisión del alquiler.
Existen disputas entre los inquilinos que no involucran al propietario ni a la gerencia.
Los inquilinos han sido desalojados u ocurren otras consecuencias adversas como resultado del pago por adelantado de un préstamo.

Para presentar una queja por discriminación, escriba a: USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20250-9410 o llame al 1 (800) 795-3272 (voz) o al (202) 720-6382 (TDD). El USDA es un empleador que ofrece igualdad de oportunidades laborales.

Multifamily Housing Grievance Procedures | FAQs

Grievance Definition

For the purposes of describing the USDA Rural Development applicant or tenant grievance process, a grievance is defined as a "complaint – or a strong feeling – that you have been treated unfairly."

Grievance Process Overview

We believe the best way to resolve grievances is through an informal meeting between applicants or tenants and the property owner. We encourage owners and tenants to try to reach a mutually satisfactory resolution to the problem.

Q: What are grievance procedures and why were they established?

Answer: Grievance procedures are designed to ensure there is a fair process for addressing applicant or tenant concerns, and to ensure fair treatment if an action or inaction by an owner – including anyone designated to act for an owner – adversely affects applicants or tenants of multifamily housing financed by USDA Rural Development.

Q: To whom do grievance procedures apply?

Answer: Any applicant or tenant can file a grievance using these procedures.

Q: To what types of situations do grievance procedures apply?

Answer:

1. Failure to maintain the premises to ensure access to decent, safe, sanitary, and affordable housing
2. Owner violation of lease provisions or occupancy rules
3. Modification of the lease and occupancy rule changes
4. Rent changes not authorized by USDA Rural Development
5. Denial of occupancy
6. Other adverse actions that result in a denial, significant reduction, or termination of benefits to an applicant or tenant

Q. To what types of situations do grievance procedures NOT apply?

Answer:

1. Rent changes authorized by USDA Rural Development
2. Complaints involving discrimination
3. Multifamily housing properties in which an association of tenants exists, and the association and the owner have agreed to use an alternative method of settling grievances
4. Changes in occupancy rules or other operational or managerial practices required by USDA Rural Development in which proper notice has been given according to law and lease provisions
5. Lease violations that would result in tenancy termination and eviction
6. Disputes between tenants not involving the property owner
7. Displacement or other adverse actions against a tenant because of the owner's loan prepayment to USDA Rural Development

USDA is an equal opportunity lender, provider, and employer.

Q: How do I file a grievance?

Answer:

1. The applicant or tenant must communicate to the owner in writing any grievance to a notice within 10 calendar days following an adverse action or receipt of a notice of intent to take an adverse action.
2. Owners must offer to meet with tenants to discuss the grievance within 10 calendar days of receipt.
3. If the grievance is not resolved to the applicant's or tenant's satisfaction, the owner must then prepare a summary of the problem and submit it to the applicant or tenant and USDA Rural Development within 10 calendar days. The summary must explain the:
   a. owner's position
   b. applicant or tenant's position
   c. result of the meeting
4. The applicant or tenant also can submit a summary to USDA Rural Development (see regional contacts below).

Q: What is the process if the grievance is not resolved during the meeting and a hearing is required?

Answer:

1. A hearing request must be submitted to the property owner within 10 calendar days of receipt of the informal meeting summary.
2. Selection of a hearing officer, hearing panel, or standing hearing panel occurs
3. Examination of records follows
4. The hearing is scheduled
5. If a grievance involves a rent increase not authorized by USDA RD, or a scenario in which an owner is alleged to have failed to maintain the property in a decent, safe, and sanitary manner, tenant rent can be deposited into an escrow account (provided the tenant's rental payments are otherwise current).

Q: What happens if a hearing isn't requested within the required time frame?

Answer: If the applicant or tenant does not request a hearing within the time provided, the owner's disposition of the grievance will become final.

Q: What happens at the hearing?

Answer:

1. The hearing will proceed before a hearing officer or hearing panel at which evidence will be received.
2. The hearing must provide basic due process safeguards for both the applicant or tenant, and the owner
3. The applicant or tenant must present evidence that they are entitled to the relief sought. The owner must present evidence showing the basis for action, or failure to act, addressing the reasons for the grievance.
4. The hearing officer or hearing panel must require that the owner, the applicant or applicant, counsel, and other participants or spectators conduct themselves in an orderly manner.

USDA is an equal opportunity lender, provider, and employer.

5. If either party or their representative fails to appear at a scheduled hearing, the hearing officer or hearing panel can postpone the hearing for no more than five days, or can determine that the absent party has waived their right to a hearing. If it is determined that the absent party has waived their rights, the hearing officer or panel will decide on the grievance. Both the applicant or tenant and the owner must be notified in writing of the determination.

Q: What happens with the decision?

Answer:

1. The hearing officer or panel has the authority to affirm or reverse an owner's decision.
2. The hearing officer or panel must prepare a written decision within 10 calendar days of the hearing. The decision will not be effective for 10 calendar days to allow time for USDA RD to review.
3. The hearing officer or panel must send copies of the decision to the applicant or tenant, the owner, and USDA RD.
4. The decision is binding unless the parties to the hearing are notified within 10 calendar days by USDA RD that the decision does not comply with federal regulations.
5. Upon receipt of written notification from the hearing officer or panel, the owner and tenant must take the necessary action – or refrain from actions – specified in the decision.

Notice of Adverse Action

The owner must notify applicants or tenants in writing about any proposed actions that could have adverse consequences. Examples include denial of admission, or changes in the occupancy rules or lease. The written notice must give specific reasons for the proposed action and must also advise applicants or tenants of the right to respond to the notice within 10 calendar days after the date of the notice and also the right to request a hearing. Multifamily properties in areas with non-English-speaking applicants or tenants must send notices in English and in the majority non-English language.

Q: I still have questions. Who can help me?

Answer: You can email USDA Rural Development Multifamily based on your Region. Be sure to include your contact information, the property name and location.

Tenant Rights and Responsibilities

Together, America Prospers

You can help make your USDA Rural Development-assisted housing a better home for you, your family, and your neighbors.

USDA Rural Development provides financial assistance subsidies for the apartment in which you live. To maintain a positive environment for all residents, we encourage:

- Open communication between property owners, management and residents
- Property managers to consider and resolve resident complaints

We support your right to:

- File complaints with property management, owners or USDA without fear of retaliation, harassment or intimidation
- Organize and participate in certain decisions regarding the well-being of the property
- Use the USDA Rural Development Multifamily Housing program grievance process https://tinyurl.com/a2tezj7c to appeal a management decision

Together with the property owner and management team, you play an important role in ensuring your apartment, the grounds, and common areas are a safe, healthy, and comfortable environment for all.

Your Rights

As a resident, you have the right to:

- Live in decent, safe, sanitary housing free from environmental, health, and safety hazards
- Have repairs performed in a timely manner, and upon request
- Receive reasonable written notice of any non-emergency inspection or other entry into your home
- Protection from eviction, except for specific causes stated in your lease
- Receive a 30-day notice prior to eviction for nonpayment of rent
- Request recalculation of your rent if your income decreases by $50 or more per month
- Access your tenant file
- Access resources to help you avoid eviction, ensure the legal process during an eviction proceeding is fair, and avoid future housing instability
- Protections under the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA). VAWA provides housing protections for survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, harassment, and stalking who are applying for or living in federally assisted housing. The law applies to a survivor regardless of sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, or age.
- File a complaint alleging discrimination without fear of retaliation or reprisal

As a member of a resident organization, you have the right to:

- Organize without difficulty, harassment, or retaliation from property owners or management
- Provide leaflets and post materials in common areas informing other residents of their rights and opportunities to be involved in matters concerning their rental homes
- Use appropriate common space or meeting facilities to organize. (There might be instances in which a reasonable, USDA-approved fee applies for common space use.)
- Meet without representatives or employees of the property owner or management company present
- Be recognized by property owners and the management company as having a voice in residential community affairs

Your Nondiscrimination Rights

You have the right to:

- Equal and fair treatment
- Use of services and facilities without regard to your race, color, religion, gender, gender identity, sex, sexual orientation, disability, familial status, national origin (ethnicity or language), and age

Your Rights Regarding Clear and Fair Leases

Leases must:

- Be clearly and fairly written, with well-defined rental terms, rights and responsibilities
- Not include provisions limiting how disagreements will be settled, unauthorized terms, hidden or illegal fees, false representations, or other unfair or deceptive practices
- Include transparent information regarding the security deposit policy, with appropriately sized deposits placed in a federally insured bank account for the duration of the lease
- Provide reasonable advance notice of actions related to the unit, including notice of entry for inspection, and notice of any significant changes to the unit
- Be written in simple, plain-language, accessible to the renter, and the leasing process must ensure tenants understand the terms of the lease
- Describe the rights and protections provided to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, harassment, and stalking.

Your Rights Regarding Adverse Actions and Appeals

- The owner must notify applicants and tenants in writing about any proposed actions that would have negative consequences, such as denial of occupancy or changes in the occupancy rules or lease.
- The written notice must give specific reasons for the proposed action and must also advise applicants and tenants of their appeal rights. Housing complexes in areas with concentrations of non-English-speaking residents must provide notices both in English and in the majority non-English language.
- Applicants and tenants can file a grievance in writing with the property owner in response to the owner's actions – or failure to act – that result in a denial, significant reduction, or termination of benefits.
- Grievances can also be filed when an applicant or tenant disputes the owner's notice of proposed adverse action. Refer to USDA Rural Development Multifamily Housing Grievance Process FAQs (available at this link: https://tinyurl.com/a2tezj7c) for more information.

Your Responsibilities

As a resident of a USDA-assisted multifamily housing property, you also have certain responsibilities to ensure your building remains a suitable home for you and your neighbors.

- By signing your lease, you, the property owner, and the management company have entered into a legal, enforceable contract. You must comply with the rules and guidelines of your lease and all local laws governing the property.

Responsibilities to your property owner or management agent

As a tenant, you must:

- Pay the correct and total amount of rent due – on time – each month
- Provide accurate information to the property owner or management agent to determine your total payment. You must also consent to the release of information to a third party to allow for verification.
- Report changes in your family's income or composition to the property owner or management agent in a timely manner.

If you have questions about your lease — or to obtain a copy of it — contact your property management agent or the USDA loan specialist assigned to your property. You can find a list of loan specialists at this link: https://www.sc.egov.usda.gov/data/MFH.html.

Your Responsibilities to the Property and Your Fellow Residents

You must:

- Conduct yourself in a manner that will not disturb your neighbors
- Not engage in criminal activity in your apartment, common areas or grounds
- Keep your apartment reasonably clean. Exits and entrances must be free of debris, clutter and fire hazards
- Properly dispose of garbage and waste. Do not litter on the grounds or common areas
- Maintain your apartment and common areas in the same general physical condition as they were when you took occupancy
- Report to management any health or safety hazards and any defects in building systems, fixtures, appliances, or other parts of the apartment, grounds or facilities

Your Right to be Involved in Decisions Impacting Your Home

You have the right to be notified of – and sometimes, to comment on – the following:

- An increase or decrease in the maximum permissible rent
- Conversion of a property from property-paid utilities to tenant-paid utilities
- A proposed decrease or increase in the tenant utility allowance
- Changes in the occupancy rules or lease
- Improvements that represent a substantial change or addition to the property
- Payment in full of a mortgage note held by USDA Rural Development (if prior USDA approval is required)
- Any other action which could ultimately lead to the involuntary, temporary, or permanent relocation of tenants

Note: If you live in a USDA-owned property that is being sold, you have the right to be notified of – and comment on – USDA Rural Development's plans for sale of the property. You also will be given an opportunity to receive a Letter of Priority Entitlement (LOPE) that will help you find suitable rental housing elsewhere.
