This supplemental application information is to be maintained by the housing provider and maintained as confidential information. Providing the information is basic to the operations of the HUD Assisted-Housing Program and is voluntary. It supports statutory requirements and program and management controls that prevent fraud, waste and mismanagement. Public reporting burden for this collection is estimated to average 10 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. This information is required to obtain benefits and voluntary. HUD may not collect this information, and you are not required to complete this form, unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

This information is authorized by the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 as amended, the Housing and Urban Rural Recovery Act of 1983 and Housing and Community Development Technical Amendments of 1984. This information is needed to be in compliance with OMB-mandated changes to Ethnicity and Race categories for recording the 50059 Data Requirements to HUD. Owners/agents must offer the opportunity to the head and co-head of each household to "self certify" during the application interview or lease signing. In-place tenants must complete the format as part of their next interim or annual re-certification. This process will allow the owner/agent to collect the needed information on all members of the household. Completed documents should be stapled together for each household and placed in the household's file. Parents or guardians are to complete the self-certification for children under the age of 18. Once system development funds are provided and the appropriate system upgrades have been implemented, owners/agents will be required to report the race and ethnicity data electronically to the TRACS (Tenant Rental Assistance Certification System). This information is considered non-sensitive and does not require any special protection.

Instructions for the Race and Ethnic Data Reporting (Form HUD-27061-H)

In-place tenants must also be offered the opportunity to complete the form as part of the next interim or annual recertification. Once the form is completed it need not be completed again unless the head of household or household composition changes. There is no penalty for persons who do not complete the form. However, the owner or agent may place a note in the tenant file stating the applicant/tenant refused to complete the form. Parents or guardians are to complete the form for children under the age of 18.

THE SCHOCHET COMPANIES'
REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION POLICY AND PROCEDURES FOR PROSPECTIVE AND EXISTING TENANTS WITH DISABILITIES

I. Policy

The Schochet Companies' ("The Schochet Companies" or the "Company") Reasonable Accommodation Policy and Procedures For Prospective and Existing Tenants With Disabilities (the "Policy") contains important information for tenants and prospective tenants in its Massachusetts properties. Please read it carefully.

Summary: It is unlawful, and against this Policy, for any Schochet Companies employee to discriminate against a prospective or existing tenant who is a person with a disability as defined by law. The Schochet Companies promotes and encourages the participation of such disabled persons to the fullest extent possible in all of its programs, services, and activities. In accordance with the law and this Policy, The Schochet Companies will provide "reasonable accommodations" to all prospective and existing tenants who request such accommodations to afford them equal opportunity to use and enjoy the Company's housing or programs and who are persons with a disability as defined by law, unless it is determined that the accommodation would present an undue financial or administrative burden or make a fundamental alteration in the nature of its programs. If a request for accommodation may present an undue financial or administrative burden or make a fundamental alteration of a program, The Schochet Companies will attempt to propose alternative solutions and/or accommodations which do not create such a hardship or make such an alteration, and otherwise work in good faith with the requesting tenant to determine the availability of an acceptable alternative.

Non-Retaliation: It is unlawful, and against The Schochet Companies policy, for any Schochet Companies employee to retaliate against any prospective or existing tenant who has requested a reasonable accommodation or has complained of or opposed alleged discrimination by The Schochet Companies based on disability or any other protected status. Depending upon the specific circumstances, examples of such retaliation could include initiating eviction proceedings against a tenant, or subjecting a tenant to heightened scrutiny of the tenant's compliance with Schochet Companies policies because the tenant has requested such an accommodation or complained about such conduct, or creating a hostile environment for a tenant because he or she is disabled or exercised his or her rights under this Policy.

Person with a disability: A person has a disability under state and federal law if the person (1) has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity, or (2) the person has a record of such an impairment, or (3) the person is perceived as having such an impairment. A disability can be apparent, as in the case of someone who needs use of a wheelchair for mobility or is deaf or blind, or not apparent, as in the case of someone with a cognitive disability or mental illness. Under the Massachusetts fair housing law, a person may still have a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits a major life activity within the meaning of state law if the person would have this condition in the absence of any self-help measures that person undertakes, such as use of glasses or the taking of medication.

Reasonable accommodation: A reasonable accommodation is a change, which is reasonable, to the physical environment at The Schochet Companies, or the way The Schochet Companies handles that person's current or prospective tenancy, that the person needs because of a disability in order to have an equal opportunity to enjoy The Schochet Companies' facilities or programs.

A need for a reasonable accommodation and the obligation to provide one may arise in the following situations:

- a prospective or existing tenant with a disability needs a change in The Schochet Companies' rules, policies or procedures to have an equal opportunity to use and enjoy The Schochet Companies' premises and programs;
- a prospective or existing tenant with a disability needs a change, modification or repair to his or her apartment or a special type of apartment in order for that person to have an equal opportunity to use and enjoy the apartment;
- a prospective or existing tenant with a disability needs a change or repair to some other part of the housing site in order to use and enjoy his or her apartment or The Schochet Companies' facilities or programs; and
- a prospective or existing tenant needs a change in the way The Schochet Companies communicates with that person for the person to use and enjoy his or her apartment or The Schochet Companies' facilities or programs.

Section 504 Coordinator: In order to implement this Policy, The Schochet Companies has designated a Section 504 Coordinator. Information on the identity and contact information for the Section 504 Coordinator is included under Step 2 of this Policy and in The Schochet Companies' Notice of Right to Reasonable Accommodation ("Notice of Rights"), Exhibit 1 to this Policy.

Requests for reasonable accommodation: There is no magic formula for the words a person needs to use to request a reasonable accommodation. A person does not necessarily need to say specifically that he or she "requests a reasonable accommodation" to be considered for one. It is enough that the person indicate a need for action by The Schochet Companies of a type described above because of a medical, physical, psychiatric, or emotional condition, or inform The Schochet Companies' Section 504 Coordinator or an employee working in the Management Office, who is instructed to report that person's request to the Section 504 Coordinator. A person is not entitled to be considered for or receive a reasonable accommodation, however, unless she or he requests one. To facilitate a request for reasonable accommodation, it is usually helpful for both the requesting party and the Company if the request is in writing. Therefore, The Schochet Companies has provided forms for the requesting party to complete, as explained below. However, the Company will timely consider a reasonable accommodation request made orally to the Section 504 Coordinator (either during a telephone conversation 617-482-8925 or an in-person meeting with the Section 504 Coordinator) if the person is unable to prepare a written request or in writing without the use of the Request for a Reasonable Accommodation Form, along with any form of documentation from a qualified person verifying the requesting person's disability and need for the accommodation.

Medical Information: If a person's disability is obvious, or otherwise known to the Company, and if the need for the requested accommodation is also readily apparent or known, then the Company generally has no need to request any additional information about the requester's disability or the disability-related need for the accommodation. If the requester's disability is either not known or not readily apparent to the Company, or the need for the accommodation is not readily apparent or known, the Company may request information that is necessary to verify the existence of the disability and need for the accommodation. (Note: A Requesting Party's receipt of SSI or SSDI may be sufficient proof of disability.)

Therefore, any requests for medical information must be limited to verification: (1) that a person's condition meets the legal definition of "disability" (where the disability is not readily apparent), and (2) that a reasonable accommodation would afford the person an equal opportunity to enjoy The Schochet Companies' housing and services (where the need for the accommodation is not readily apparent). This means that The Schochet Companies will not inquire about the nature or severity or other details of the disability or medical history, treatment and medications taken, or request a person's medical records in connection with a request for an accommodation under this Policy.

Interactive process: The Schochet Companies shall make reasonable efforts to comply with a request for a reasonable accommodation made by a prospective or existing tenant with a disability as defined by law. If a request cannot be allowed because the accommodation would pose an undue financial or administrative burden or would make a fundamental change in the nature of the program, The Schochet Companies will take reasonable efforts to work with the applicant or tenant to identify the availability of an alternative solution, in order to provide the person with an equal housing opportunity, as required by law. Similarly, the applicant and tenant will make reasonable efforts to cooperate with The Schochet Companies' efforts.

II. Procedures

The following procedures apply to the reasonable accommodation request process. All forms referenced below will be maintained confidentially and separate from tenant files, and may be made available to Schochet Companies employees who are directly involved in this decision-making process regarding a request for accommodation, overseeing or supervising this process, or as permitted by law. The Schochet Companies may be required to provide an existing or prospective tenant's information to government entities, housing agencies (such as HUD and MassHousing), and as required in the course of discovery taking place in a legal action pursuant to applicable rules of procedure, or by subpoena, or as otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Any tenant of a unit within a Schochet Companies property who wishes to request a reasonable accommodation is to direct such request to The Schochet Companies' 504 Coordinator, as described below. The 504 Coordinator shall follow the procedures outlined below.

STEP 1: The Schochet Companies Distributes this Policy to Prospective and Existing Tenants.

Five (5) exhibits are attached to this Policy, as follows:

- Exhibit 1: Notice of Right to Reasonable Accommodation in English and Spanish (“Notice of Rights”);
- Exhibit 2: Request for a Reasonable Accommodation Form (“Request Form”);
- Exhibit 3: Verification Statement – Request for Reasonable Accommodation (“Verification Form”);
- Exhibit 4: Letter with Acknowledgment of Receipt of Request Form and Notice of Additional Information You Must Provide (“Follow-Up Letter”); and
- Exhibit 5: Appeal from Denial of Accommodation (“Appeal Form”).

All persons who submit applications to the Company for housing on or after October 15, 2007 shall be provided a copy of this Policy (with exhibits) at the initial application stage, in English (or Spanish at the request of the applicant).

All persons who are existing tenants on or after October 15, 2007 shall be provided with a copy of this Policy (with exhibits) a minimum of once annually, in English (or Spanish at the request of the tenant).

All prospective and existing tenants who request an accommodation on or after October 15, 2007 shall also be given a copy of this Policy (with exhibits) in English (or Spanish at the request of the tenant).

STEP 2: A Person Makes a Request for a Reasonable Accommodation to the Section 504 Coordinator.

A person who makes a request for a reasonable accommodation on his or her own behalf or on the behalf of an existing or prospective tenant of the Company shall be referred to as the “Requesting Party.” A Requesting Party should direct a reasonable accommodation request to The Schochet Companies' Section 504 Coordinator, who can be reached at 536 Granite Street Suite 301, Braintree, MA 02184, 617-482-8925. In order to facilitate timely and effective consideration of a person's Reasonable Accommodation Request, The Schochet Companies prefers that a Requesting Party submit a request for a reasonable accommodation in writing utilizing the Company's Request Form (Exhibit 2) and Verification Form (Exhibit 3), which a Requesting Party may obtain from the administrative office of any Schochet Companies property or from the Section 504 Coordinator at 536 Granite Street Suite 301, Braintree, MA 02184, 617-482-8925.

The Requesting Party should complete the Request Form and the Authorization Section of the Verification Form and return them to the Section 504 Coordinator at the above address or at fax number (617) 830-0971. (However, the Section 504 Coordinator will also consider other forms of written requests and verification from a qualified professional of the Requesting Party's disability and/or need for a disability, if such verification is needed to establish the disability or need for accommodation.)

If the Requesting Party needs assistance in completing the Request Form or the Authorization Section of the Verification Form (for example, reducing verbal information she or he provides to writing), she or he should request assistance from the Section 504 Coordinator and/or the Requesting Party's designee.

Upon receipt of a reasonable accommodation request, the Section 504 Coordinator will send to the Requesting Party the Follow-Up Letter (Exhibit 4).

STEP 3: If Necessary, The Schochet Companies Sends the Verification Form to the Certifying Professional Identified by the Requesting Party

If the Requesting Party's disability is not readily apparent or the need for the accommodation is not readily apparent, and the Requesting Party has not otherwise previously submitted verification of the disability or need for accommodation which is adequate as to the current request, the Section 504 Coordinator will mail or fax the Verification Form to the person designated by the Requesting Party to complete the Verification Form within five (5) business days of the Section 504 Coordinator's receipt of the completed Request Form and Authorization Section of the Verification Form. In the event that a completed Verification Form is not received within ten (10) business days of mailing, the Section 504 Coordinator shall notify the Requesting Party in writing that no completed Verification Form was received.

If the Section 504 Coordinator receives a completed Verification Form or other form of written verification and determines that the information supplied is insufficient to verify the disability and/or need for the requested accommodation, the Section 504 Coordinator will make diligent efforts to promptly obtain complete information, including contacting, as appropriate, either the Requesting Party or the party designated by the Requesting Party to make verification (or from whom the Requesting Party has supplied verification, if that was previously supplied), and shall document such efforts.

STEP 4: The Schochet Companies Makes a Decision about the Request for Reasonable Accommodation.

A. Review of Documentation

The Section 504 Coordinator will review the Request Form and Verification Form (if required) or any alternative written form of request for reasonable accommodation and verification supplied. If the Section 504 Coordinator concludes that the person is disabled for purposes of this Policy and that the accommodation requested is needed because of the disability and is necessary to provide the person with equal enjoyment of The Schochet Companies' housing, programs, services, or activities, the Section 504 Coordinator will grant the requested accommodation, unless the Section 504 Coordinator can identify a specific, well-founded reason to believe that the requested accommodation is unreasonable because it would place an undue financial or administrative burden on The Schochet Companies or would make a fundamental change in the nature of its program. Some factors to be considered in determining whether a requested accommodation is reasonable are:

- the level of difficulty involved with providing the requested accommodation;
- the cost of the requested accommodation after available tax deductions and alternative funding sources;
- a thorough consideration of the availability/unavailability of The Schochet Companies' resources and outside or other source funding;
- the impact of the requested accommodation on the overall operations of the property;
- the impact on the property employees;
- the availability of an alternative reasonable accommodation that would be effective in affording the person an equal opportunity to enjoy The Schochet Companies' housing, programs, and services, recognizing that persons with disabilities typically have the most accurate knowledge about the functional limitations posed by their disabilities, and an individual is not obligated to accept an alternative accommodation suggested by the provider if he or she believes it will not meet his or her needs and his or her preferred accommodation is reasonable; and
- other factors allowed by law.

The Section 504 Coordinator may establish internal procedures to best effectuate the obligations set forth herein, including, but not limited to, the use of appropriate designees to assist in addressing the paperwork and timeliness requirements set forth herein and committees to address determination as to requests for reasonable accommodations.

B. Decision Letter to the Requesting Party

Within ten (10) business days of receiving a completed Request Form (Exhibit 2) (or other written form of a reasonable accommodation request) and, if necessary, a completed Verification Form (Exhibit 3) or other form of written verification, and any additional information requested in the Follow-Up Letter (Exhibit 4) and supplied by any person, the Section 504 Coordinator shall, in a written decision letter to the Requesting Party (the "Decision Letter"), inform the Requesting Party of the decision with respect to his/her request for accommodation. If the Requesting Party indicated on the Request Form a need for an emergency response, the Section 504 Coordinator will make reasonable efforts to comply with a reasonable request for an earlier response.

If a request is denied, the Section 504 Coordinator's Decision Letter shall inform the person of the reasons for the denial and the Decision Letter should contain the following information:

- If the reason for denial is that accommodation requested is not reasonable or would pose an undue financial or administrative burden or would pose a fundamental alteration of The Schochet Companies' programs or services, the Decision Letter shall (1) state the basis for so concluding, (2) state that The Schochet Companies will take reasonable efforts to identify if there is an alternative, reasonable solution, and (3) request that the person contact the Section 504 Coordinator to discuss alternatives and will provide the Section 504 Coordinator's contact information.
- If the reason for denial is insufficient information, the Decision Letter shall inform the person that The Schochet Companies will reconsider its denial upon receipt of the information needed and request that the person contact the Section 504 Coordinator to discuss the need for further information.
- A copy of Appeal from Denial of Accommodation form ("Appeal Form") (Exhibit 5 to the Policy), in English (and in Spanish if the Section 504 Coordinator has reason to believe that the recipient of the Decision Letter would benefit from a Spanish language version) and a statement informing that Requesting Party that she or he has the right to appeal the denial by completing and submitting the Appeal Form to the Section 504 Coordinator within thirty (30) days of the date of the Decision Letter.

C. Review of Appeal; Decision on Appeal

A Requesting Party may appeal a decision denying his/her request for an accommodation by completing an Appeal Form (Exhibit 5), and stating on that form the reasons why she or he believes the denial of the request for accommodation was wrong. The Requesting Party must submit the completed Appeal Form to the Section 504 Coordinator, within thirty (30) days of the date of the Decision Letter.

The Section 504 Coordinator shall submit the completed Appeal Form to a committee designated by the Company to hear such appeals (the "Appeals Committee"), and the decision by that committee on the appeal shall be final. The Section 504 Coordinator will inform the Requesting Party of the outcome of the appeal in writing. In connection with the appeal, the Section 504 Coordinator shall supply the Appeals Committee with all of the documentation pertaining to the request that is in the Section 504 Coordinator's possession to assist it in deciding the appeal, and shall work with the Committee to obtain any additional information needed.

STEP 5: Maintenance of Records by The Schochet Companies

The Section 504 Coordinator shall maintain a log containing a record of all reasonable accommodation requests made by prospective or existing tenants at its Massachusetts properties ("Reasonable Accommodation Log"), including the following:

- the date of receipt of the completed Request Form or other written form of request for reasonable accommodation;
- the date of receipt of the completed Verification Form or other written form of verification of a disability or need for the requested accommodation, if applicable;
- the date of delivery of the Follow-Up Letter;
- the date of delivery of the Decision Letter and the substance of the decision;
- the date and description of the reasonable accommodation or modification provided;
- the date of receipt of any Appeal Form; and
- the date of delivery of the Decision on Appeal.

All documentation relating to prospective and existing tenants' requests for accommodation and The Schochet Companies' response to such requests, including, but not limited to, completed Request Forms, Verification Forms, Decision Letters, Appeal Forms, the Reasonable Accommodation Log, and other documents referenced in this Policy, shall be retained by The Schochet Companies in accordance with applicable law and applicable orders of the Court.

It is against The Schochet Companies policy and federal and state law for any Schochet Companies representative to in any way retaliate against a person because the person has requested a reasonable accommodation or has complained of or opposed alleged discrimination by The Schochet Companies based on disability or any other protected status, including by seeking to evict a tenant who has done so, by subjecting such tenant to heightened scrutiny of the tenant's conformance with The Schochet Companies' rules or policies or to a hostile environment, or by any other adverse action.

If you have a disability and as a result of your disability you need...

- a reasonable change in The Schochet Companies' rules or policies that would make it easier for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site,
- a reasonable change, modification or repair in your apartment or a special type of apartment that would make it easier for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site,
- a reasonable change or repair to some other part of the housing site that would make it easier for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site, or
- a reasonable change in the way we communicate with you or give you information that would make it easier for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site,

You can submit a request for this kind of reasonable change or modification, which will be reviewed by The Schochet Companies. This type of a request is called a Request for Reasonable Accommodation.

If you can show that you have a disability and if your request is reasonable and is needed because of your disability, if it is not too expensive, and if it is not too difficult to arrange, you have the right to receive the change you request or a similar alternative.

You can request a reasonable accommodation by contacting The Schochet Companies' Section 504 Coordinator. The Section 504 Coordinator will ask you to complete and submit the Reasonable Accommodation Request Form ("Request Form"), and a completed Verification Statement – Reasonable Accommodation Request ("Verification Form") must also be received by the Section 504 Coordinator, if your disability or need for the accommodation is not obvious. If you need help filling out these forms, let us know.

We will give you a written response within ten (10) business days of when we are in receipt of both your completed Request Form and completed Verification Form (if required). (If you indicate on the Request Form you need an earlier response, we will try to accommodate your request.) We will let you know if we need more information or verification from you, or if we would like to talk to you about other ways to meet your needs.

If we turn down your request, we will notify you of the denial in writing and explain in that notice the reasons for the denial. You can give us more information if you think that will help.

If you would like more information on The Schochet Companies' policy and procedures on reasonable accommodations, you may request a copy of The Schochet Companies' Reasonable Accommodation Policy and Procedures for Prospective and Existing Tenants with Disabilities from The Schochet Companies' Section 504 Coordinator and her/his designee.

It is against Schochet Companies policy and federal and state law for any Schochet Companies representative to in any way retaliate against a person because the person has requested a reasonable accommodation or has complained of or opposed alleged discrimination by The Schochet Companies based on disability or any other protected status, including by seeking to evict a tenant who has done so, by subjecting such tenant to heightened scrutiny of the tenant's conformance with The Schochet Companies' rules or policies or to a hostile environment, or by any other adverse action.

NOTE: All information you provide will be kept confidential as required by law and be used to make it easier for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site. The Schochet Companies may be required to provide your information to government entities, housing agencies (such as the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD") and Mass Housing), and as required in the course of discovery taking place in a legal action pursuant to applicable rules of procedure, or by subpoena, or as otherwise ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.
