

The use and occupancy of an artist's working and living unit shall be for artists and their household.

"Artist" shall mean a person who produces art as a primary occupation and is engaged and active in one of the following fields:

- 1) Fine Arts – including but not limited to painting, drawing, sculpture, book arts, printmaking and mixed media.
- 2) Imaginative Works – including but not limited to literature, poetry, photography, music composition, choreography, cinematography and computer arts/
- 3) Function Arts – including but not limited to metal, textiles, paper, wood, ceramics, glass and/or plastic objects.
- 4) Performing Arts – including but not limited to singers, dancers, musicians, actors, performance artists; costume, lighting, sound and set designers.

Each artist who wants to reside at ArtLofts must obtain written confirmation from the Community Development Director or his/her designee, that the type of proposed art work to be created is appropriate for the location. Each artist who may reside in an ArtLofts unit shall comply with not less than three (3) of the following requirements when submitting a completed application:

- (a) Submit evidence of a body of work, created in the last three (3) years, as documented in digital support materials;
- (b) Submit evidence that the artist has formal training in the arts, as documented in a resume that summarizes such training;
- (c) Submit evidence that the artist has present his or her work in exhibition, performance, readings or comparable public programming, as documented in a resume, sample programs/invitations, catalogs, press clips or similar official documentation;
- (d) Submit three (3) letters of recommendation from artists and/or arts professionals (such as curators, producers or teachers) who are recognized within the arts community and who will attest that the applicant is a working artist as defined above.

The Artist Review Panel shall mean a subcommittee appointed by the City Council, consisting of three (3) members of the City's Arts Commission, one (1) of whom shall be a working artist, established for the purpose of reviewing and certifying each artist who proposes to occupy an artist's working and living unit at ArtLofts. The Artist Review Panel will meet to review the Artist Occupancy Permit Application and either approve or deny the application. Any decision made by the Artist Review Panel may be appealed to the City Council in accordance with Section 25.05.070.