ASSISTED LIVING

THE LODGE

Residents of The Lodge enjoy all of the benefits of Independent Living Plus with the peace of mind and confidence of additional support and assistance. We provide person-centered care that is founded on individual needs, abilities and preferences. As a result, we deliver the optimal blend of support and freedom. Residents are never alone; our professionally trained, licensed staff is on site 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Our residents are also encouraged to take advantage of all of the community's amenities, services and programs, as well, enjoying a lifestyle that is as engaging and rewarding as it is supportive.

THE RIDGE

If healthcare needs change and residents require a higher level of personal attention, The Quarry provides enhanced care service that allows their journeys to continue – right here.

The Ridge provides a small setting of 29 apartments with an intimate dining room and living room. This community features a higher staff-to-resident ratio and a focus on those with movement disorders such as Parkinson's disease to deliver the unique care outlined in each resident's personalized support plan. With the assistance of 24-hour, on-site licensed staffing and access to all the community's amenities, services and programs, The Ridge offers residents complete peace of mind and a fulfilling lifestyle.

MEMORY CARE

THE ATRIUM

For those facing the challenges of memory loss or dementia, The Atrium Memory Care provides peace of mind of 24-hour, on-site licensed staff; customized assistance and personalized support in a comfortable, relaxing environment. This small setting of 24 studio apartments, with an intimate dining and living room, offers quiet, secure surroundings that promote calm and comfort, complemented by activities that support abilities with dignity and confidence.
