Reasonable Accommodation

If you have a disability and you need:

- A change in the rules or policies in how we do things that would make it easier for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site, or
- A change or repair to some other part of the housing site that would make it easier for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site, or
- A change or repair in your apartment or a special type of apartment that would make it easier for you to live here and use the facilities or take part in programs on site, or
- A change in the way we communicate with you or give you information.

You can ask for this kind of change, which is called a REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION.

If you can show that you have a disability and if your request is reasonable, (defined as “not too expensive and/or too difficult to arrange”) we will try to make the change you request.

We will give you an answer within fifteen days unless there is a problem getting the information we need or unless you agree to a longer time. We will let you know if we need more information or verification from you or if we would like to talk to you about other ways to meet your needs.

Management reserves the right to make the final decision on all factors related to the situation. If we turn down your request, we will explain the reasons and you can give us more information if you think that will help. If you need help filling out a REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION REQUEST FORM, or if you want to give us your request in some other way, we will help you.

For a REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION REQUEST FORM, please call (617) 232-5910 RTH Properties 747 Huntington Ave. Boston MA 02115.

The information collection requirements contained in this form were submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The public reporting burden is estimated at 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Section 644 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (42 U.S.C. 13604) imposed on HUD the obligation to require housing providers participating in HUD's assisted housing programs to provide any individual or family applying for occupancy in HUD-assisted housing with the option to include in the application for occupancy the name, address, telephone number, and other relevant information of a family member, friend, or person associated with a social, health, advocacy, or similar organization. The objective of providing such information is to facilitate contact by the housing provider with the person or organization identified by the tenant to assist in providing any delivery of services or special care to the tenant and assist with resolving any tenancy issues arising during the tenancy of such tenant. This supplemental application information is to be maintained by the housing provider and maintained as confidential information. Providing the information is basic to the operations of the HUD Assisted-Housing Program and is voluntary. It supports statutory requirements and program and management controls that prevent fraud, waste and mismanagement. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless the collection displays a currently valid OMB control number. Privacy Statement: Public Law 102-550, authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to collect all the information (except the Social Security Number (SSN)) which will be used by HUD to protect disbursement data from fraudulent actions.
