TOMKEN Place

Your Neighbourhood

Surrounded by the best of Mississauga means residents have every convenience at their disposal. Transportation includes frequent transit service with a bus stop virtually at the front door. Highways 401, 403 and the QEW add accessibility. The rental community is near Mississauga's urban centre – the many corporate head offices that have relocated to Mississauga's Financial District are a close commute. The City Centre area also offers prime shopping at one of Canada's best and biggest malls – Square One – including everything from brand shopping to dining and entertainment. With banks, groceries, schools, parks, places of worship, the hospital and more, in walking distance, this community has it all.
