Statements by all Household Members

Applicant represents the above statements are true and correct. Applicant authorizes verification of the above information including but not limited to references, criminal history, credit records, civil court records and income & asset information through third party sources; releases from liability all persons and entities requesting or supplying information; and acknowledges this information may be released to appropriate Federal, state, or local agencies. Applicant acknowledges that false, incomplete, or misleading information constitutes grounds for rejection of this application; and discovery of false, incomplete, or misleading information discovered after occupancy may result in termination of the right of occupancy of all occupants. Section 1001 of Title 18 of the U.S. Code makes it a criminal offense to willfully falsify a material fact or make false statement in any matter within the jurisdiction of a federal agency.

Applicant has reviewed the Resident Selection Plan, which summarizes the procedures for processing applications, and understand it is available upon request. Applicant understand that they must notify management in writing if there are any changes in household address, telephone numbers, income and household composition and must respond to Waiting List update requests to remain on the Waiting List. We are using this brief form of application to gather the minimum information needed to determine if the applicant should be put on the waiting list. Applicant’s position on the waiting list may change depending upon the preferences that other households may qualify for. Applicant can find the most up to date status of their waiting list application by calling our office or logging into the online portal.

If apartments are available (or will be soon), we must collect more detailed information from Applicant during the Application Interview and verify all information. Please be aware that if Applicant is placed on the waiting list, it does not indicate that Applicant is eligible to receiving housing at this property. Only after all required information has been received and verified can we make an eligibility determination. Failure to remain eligible as determined by the Resident Selection Plan will result in us rejecting Applicant’s application.

Applicant acknowledges by providing an email address, applicant authorizes management to communicate about this Preliminary Application and related documents and/or processes via email.

Supplement to Application for Housing
Race and Ethnic Data Form(s)

This institution is an equal opportunity provider

Instructions for the Race and Ethnic Data Reporting (Form HUD-27061-H)

A. General Instructions:

This form is to be completed by individuals wishing to be served (applicants) and those that are currently served (tenants) in housing assisted by the Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Owner and agents are required to offer the applicant/tenant the option to complete the form. The form is to be completed at initial application or at lease signing. In-place tenants must also be offered the opportunity to complete the form as part of the next interim or annual recertification. Once the form is completed it need not be completed again unless the head of household or household composition changes. There is no penalty for persons who do not complete the form. However, the owner or agent may place a note in the tenant file stating the applicant/tenant refused to complete the form. Parents or guardians are to complete the form for children under the age of 18.

The Office of Housing has been given permission to use this form for gathering race and ethnic data in assisted housing programs. Completed documents for the entire household should be stapled together and placed in the household's file.

1. The two ethnic categories you should choose from are defined below. You should check one of the two categories.

1. Hispanic or Latino. A person of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, South or Central American, or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. The term "Spanish origin" can be used in addition to "Hispanic" or "Latino."
2. Not Hispanic or Latino. A person not of Cuban, Mexican, Puerto Rican, South or Central American, or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race.

2. The five racial categories to choose from are defined below: You should check as many as apply to you.

1. American Indian or Alaska Native. A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North and South America (including Central America), and who maintains tribal affiliation or community attachment.
2. Asian. A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, or the Indian subcontinent including, for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand, and Vietnam
3. Black or African American. A person having origins in any of the black racial groups of Africa. Terms such as "Haitian" or "Negro" can be used in addition to "Black" or "African American."
4. Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander. A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa, or other Pacific Islands.
5. White. A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Middle East or North Africa.

The information collection requirements contained in this form were submitted to the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) under the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. 3501-3520). The public reporting burden is estimated at 15 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Section 644 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (42 U.S.C. 13604) imposed on HUD the obligation to require housing providers participating in HUD's assisted housing programs to provide any individual or family applying for occupancy in HUD-assisted housing with the option to include in the application for occupancy the name, address, telephone number, and other relevant information of a family member, friend, or person associated with a social, health, advocacy, or similar organization. The objective of providing such information is to facilitate contact by the housing provider with the person or organization identified by the tenant to assist in providing any delivery of services or special care to the tenant and assist with resolving any tenancy issues arising during the tenancy of such tenant. This supplemental application information is to be maintained by the housing provider and maintained as confidential information. Providing the information is basic to the operations of the HUD Assisted-Housing Program and is voluntary. It supports statutory requirements and program and management controls that prevent fraud, waste and mismanagement. In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act, an agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information, unless the collection displays a currently valid OMB control number.

Privacy Statement: Public Law 102-550, authorizes the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to collect all the information (except the Social Security Number (SSN)) which will be used by HUD to protect disbursement data from fraudulent actions.
